Rom 9:7-9 "Through Isaac shall your offspring be named." 8 This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring. 9 For this is what the promise said: "About this time next year I will return and Sarah shall have a son."

Ro 9:10-13 “And not only so, but also when Rebecca had conceived children by one man, our forefather Isaac, 11 though they were not yet born and had done nothing either good or bad—in order that God's purpose of election might continue, not because of works but because of his call— 12 she was told, "The older will serve the younger." 13 As it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."

Ro 8:28 “And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.”

2 Tim 1:9 “He saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was granted us in Christ Jesus from all eternity.”

Eph 1:11-12 “We have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to his purpose who works all things after the counsel of his will. To the end that we who were the first to hope in Christ would be to the praise of his glory.

V4–6 “Just as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before him. In love he predestined us to adoption as sons through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the kind intention of his will, to the praise of the glory of his grace, which he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved.

Ro 9:11-13 “though they were not yet born and had done nothing either good or bad—in order that God's purpose of election might continue, not because of works but because of His call— 12 she was told, "The older will serve the younger." 13 As it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."

Mal 1:1-4 “The oracle of the word of the Lord to Israel by Malachi. "I have loved you," says the Lord. But you say, "How have you loved us?" "Is not Esau Jacob's brother?" declares the Lord. "Yet I have loved Jacob but Esau I have hated. I have laid waste his hill country and left his heritage to jackals of the desert." If Edom says, "We are shattered but we will rebuild the ruins," the Lord of hosts says, "They may build, but I will tear down, and they will be called 'the wicked country,' and 'the people with whom the Lord is angry forever.'"

Ro 9:13 “As it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."
